With a discount card available for almost every store, keeping track of them all can be quite difficult and take up lots of precious wallet space. Now there's a chic new purse accessory that offers an organized solution to card clutter in wallets and purses.

The Card Cache is a stylish keychain for your cards. Simply hole punch the corners (from grocery discount cards, gift cards or even discount punch cards) and then string the stylish Card Cache through – that's it. Now your cards are available and easy to find/access and your designer bag and wallet are less cluttered! You can even purchase picture holders/protectors, a compact calendar or even a mini sharpie- and your Card Cache will have everything you need all in one convenient spot, great for traveling! Chickago has her Card Cache locked and loaded with Borders, Starbucks, & Macy's gift cards — so make sure to grab yours!
