

Too many Rewards Cards to keep track of? Then Card Cache is for you!

Ok, I admit it. I'm a rewards card junkie. I have them all. Here's my inventory in my purse:

- Office supplies - Staples, Office Max and Office Depot. Yes, I do shop at all of them, when I get additional coupons to use with my card.
- Starbucks - need I say more? It's my lifeline - I'm working my way up to the "Gold" level. What do I get? Some perks of course. But it's the thrill of the climb that works for me.
- Grocery Stores - King Soopers, Safeway and Albertsons. Yes, I shop at all 3. Primarily King Soopers but I do pop into the others upon occasion.
- Petsmart - gotta get those rewards and cash back
- Borders - I stop in when I'm in the neighborhood and I always have my card
- Shoes - DSW and Famous Footwear. Why not get more shoes when you buy? I get $10 coupons from using my card all the time.
- Blockbuster - although I prefer "On-Demand" movies these days, and RedBox, I still carry my card 'cuz you never know when you might need it.
- The Body Shop - as a Body Butter addict, I cannot do without my membership card.
- Ulta - they are so good about rewards and discounts - this is a must have too
- American Eagle- if you have a teenage daughter, you can't live without this one (damn, I need a Hollister card too! Do they have one??)
- Dining - Eat & Enjoy Rewards for Chili's, Macaroni Grill, On the Border and Maggiano's
- Toys R Us/Babies R Us - got kids? need I say more?
- Regal Crown Club- I try to hit the movies as often as possible. I'm dying to see "Eat Pray Love" coming out next Friday! Hooray!!!

So now you're thinking that my wallet must be stuffed, right? Nope. I carry a little yellow, zippered coin purse to hold everything. I dangle my tiny keychain cards on the keyring, and put the full-size cards on the inside. Then it's easier to whip out what I need. Is it cute? No. I look like a crazy, reward card queen.

But now there's an easier and more chic way to carry my cards. The Card Cache!

The Card Cache is a stylish keychain for your cards. All you need to do is hole punch the corners (from credit cards, to grocery discount cards, gift cards or even discount punch cards) and then string the stylish Card Cache through - that's it. Why didn't I think of that? Something cute to carry my cards? Cool!

If you're a crazy saver like I am, and you're carrying tons of cards around, you should definitely check this out!

If you don't have a hole punch on hand; you can buy that from Card Cache too!
